Christine has a proven record of experience in all areas of commercial real estate transactions including leasing, real estate development, acquisitions, dispositions and joint ventures. Clients appreciate collaboration and ability to represent them efficiently with a focus on providing both recommendations and solutions to achieve their goals,. She recognizes there is no one-size-fits-all approach to assisting clients and provides clients with the trusted and pragmatic legal counseling that differentiates her from other legal providers.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Negotiate and document the acquisition, sale and development of real estate
- Represent landlords and tenants in retail leases, mixed-use, and office leases
- Resolve land use issues
- Guide clients through the entitlement process
- Negotiate real estate finance and construction documents
- Christine has been committed to pro bono throughout her career, and currently volunteers at a walk-in real estate advice clinic that she helped establish with Volunteer Lawyers Network and Habitat for Humanity.
- While in law school, Christine was an extern for the Honorable Judge Edward Toussaint, Jr. of the Minnesota Court of Appeals. At the University of Minnesota, Christine ran Division I cross-country and track and was the Captain of the cross-country team.
